

Q3 2025 BUDGET SUMMARY

This report provides a consolidated view of Q3 2025 expenses to support transparent and accountable disbursement of the IHS operational funds for the Ilorin Innovation Hub. The quarter’s activities remained aligned with the Hub’s broader mandate of fostering innovation, supporting local startups, and driving digital empowerment.

The third quarter of 2025 focused on building program momentum with stable operations at the Ilorin Innovation Hub. During this period, the Hub incurred total expenses comprising recurring costs and no one-time costs.

FULL Q3 BREAKDOWN		Amount ₦
Budget Category
Operational Expenses		79,116,060.38
Salaries & Wages		48,122,060.38
Utilities & Maintenance		25,094,000.00
Travel & Conferences		3,650,000.00
Corporate Comms & PR		1,800,000.00
Administrative Costs		450,000.00
Innovation & Program Support		2,758,000.00
Contingency & Sustainability		3,285,512.66
Reserve Fund - % of Inflows		1,703,191.46
Miscellaneous Expenses - % of Operating Exp.		1,582,321.21
Total Expenses		85,159,573.04

Key Highlights

Operational Expenses made up the bulk of the spending, with significant allocations to staff salaries, essential utilities, infrastructure maintenance, and key technology investments.

79,116,060

No Equipment/software and Connectivity utility costs for this quarter, as those have been paid as one time costs in previous Q2 budget.

A portion of the budget was reserved for contingency and sustainability, including a 2% reserve fund allocation from inflows and a buffer for miscellaneous or unexpected costs.