

HR Report – Q4 2025

1. Executive Summary

The Human Resources Department sustained effective operations throughout the fourth quarter of 2025, with a strong focus on workforce expansion, employee welfare, performance oversight, and statutory compliance. The quarter was marked by deliberate staffing additions aimed at strengthening operational capacity and supporting organizational growth.

During the period under review, the organization onboarded additional NYSC corps members, engaged new contract staff, and completed the recruitment of a Finance personnel. These actions were undertaken to address operational needs and improve departmental efficiency.

HR continued to ensure timely payroll administration, benefits management, and accurate documentation, while providing consistent support to management through staff coordination and internal communication.

Key achievements for the quarter include:

- Successful onboarding of new corps members, contract staff, and a Finance staff.
- Timely processing of payroll and statutory remittances.
- Update and consolidation of HR records and workforce documentation.
- Continuous monitoring of staff welfare, attendance, and productivity.
- Sustained compliance with internal policies and labour regulations.

No major disciplinary issues were recorded during the quarter.

2. Workforce Overview

As at the end of the fourth quarter of 2025, the organization recorded an increase in workforce strength as a result of new additions during the period.

Workforce composition as at Q4 2025:

- Permanent Staff: 16
- Contract Staff: 3
- NYSC Corps Members: 6
- Interns: 3

Total Workforce: 28

During the quarter, the following additions were recorded:

- Three (3) new NYSC corps members.
- One (1) Finance staff.
- Two (2) new contract staff.

The quarter also recorded the exit of six (6) interns, following the completion of their internship programmes. Attendance and punctuality remained satisfactory across all staff categories. HR ensured that documentation for all new and existing personnel was properly updated and aligned with organizational standards.

3. Recruitment & Staffing

Recruitment and staffing activities during the fourth quarter focused on strengthening capacity across key functions. The following staffing actions were completed:

- Hiring of one (1) Finance staff.
- Onboarding of three (3) NYSC corps members.
- Engagement of two (2) contract staff.

All new personnel completed the standard onboarding process, including documentation, role briefing, and orientation.

4. Employee Demographics

As at the end of Q4 2025, the organization had a total workforce of 28 individuals, comprising permanent staff, corps members, interns, and contract staff. The workforce continues to reflect a balanced mix of experienced personnel and early-career professionals.

HR remains committed to promoting inclusivity and gradual improvement in gender balance across staff categories.

5. Training & Development

During the quarter, staff, corps members, interns, and contract staff continued to benefit from on-the-job training, mentorship, and close supervision by departmental leads. These initiatives supported skill development, collaboration, and operational efficiency.

HR plans to further strengthen capacity development through targeted internal training sessions in subsequent quarters.

6. Performance Management

Overall performance across departments remained satisfactory during Q4. Supervisors maintained routine monitoring of attendance, task delivery, and adherence to organizational standards.

Performance feedback continued through informal departmental reviews, enabling early resolution of minor performance gaps. No major performance or disciplinary issues were recorded.

7. Compensation & Benefits

Salaries, allowances, and stipends for staff, corps members, interns, and contract staff were processed promptly throughout the quarter. All statutory deductions, including pension, tax, and other required remittances, were handled in line with regulatory requirements.

HR continues to monitor compensation and benefits to ensure accuracy, fairness, and compliance.

Conclusion

The fourth quarter of 2025 reflected measured growth, improved workforce capacity, and sustained operational stability. The HR Department remains committed to supporting management through effective people management, policy compliance, and continuous workforce development as the organization moves into the new year.